COUNCIL MEETING.

COUNCIL CHAMBER,
Sept. 5th, 1892.

Present: Mayor in the chair, Councilors Meng, Ward, Lowry, Burns, Joy, Symington, Carson, McAlister, Warner, Leonard. The minutes were read and confirmed.

David Card applied for $10.00 on broken gravel. Referred to street committee, $5 to be paid meantime.

A communication was read from Mr. Geo. Stevenson with regard to establishing an evaporating establishment, asking exemption on plant and old brewery building.

Dr. Ward said it would be well to establish some principle now with regard to remission of taxes.

Mr. Warner said he thought the council should give the matter some consideration. When a man sold to the townspeople he was not in favor of remissions; but where the bulk of the goods had to be shipped away some encouragement might well be afforded.

Mr. Joy said he hoped the matter would be referred to the finance committee and that they would favorably consider the matter.

Mr. Carson said he was against exemptions from this time and he would move that the communication be filed.

Dr. Ward seconded the motion.

Dr. Meng was of the opinion that the town would not be benefited by this industry.

Dr. Leonard did not see any harm would be done by allowing the matter to go into the hands of the committee.

Mr. Symington did not see that the amount of taxes to be remitted would be any consideration if the man wanted to start.

The application was referred to finance committee to report.

A communication was read from Chief Bell, tendering his resignation, as he was leaving for the United States.

The mayor said chief Bell tendered his resignation to him, and he accepted the same and ordered salary paid up to Sept. 1st.

On motion the action of the mayor was confirmed.

A communication was read from Mair Bros., offering to take the situation now held by them at a salary of $200. On motion the application was received, and G. L. Mair and brother appointed from Sept. 1st.

A petition was read from a number of taxpayers (over 100) asking that J. Storms be appointed chief of police, if a vacancy should occur.

Mr. Joy moved that the prayer of the petitioners be granted. Seconded by Reeve Carson.

Couns. Warner moved in amendment, that no chief be appointed but that J. Storms do the work of the chief and his own present work at a salary of $400 per annum.

Moved by Messrs. Ward and Symington that the petition be received and referred to the police committee to report at next meeting of council.—Carried.

Mr. Milligan applied for a six months license as butcher for the late Rathbun store on market square.

Mr. Symington said if Mr. Milligan was turned out of the shop in six months, the council would remit half the license fee, but a license for six months could not be granted as it was against the by-law.

The Finance committee reported expenditure of $34.40, for the month $10.90.

The treasurer's statement was referred to the Finance committee to report.

Mr. Lowry reported for street committee, expenditure for the month, $117.55. The committee recommended that Jas. Davis be furnished with 4 inch tile from his house to Mr. Madole's also that George Lloyd be furnished necessary grate for end of drain. Also sidewalk on both sides of West at Thomas St. to Bridge St. be renewed. The report was taken up clause by clause. The first clause and the second clause were passed. With regard to the third clause Mr. Madole was required on —Look out next week for the announcement of the entertainment to be given in the town hall, Centerville, on Saturday evening, the 24th inst., the evening of the Camden agricultural show. Come prepared to stay for the entertainment as something extra good is in course of preparation but cannot be announced definitely this week. The proceeds are in aid of the building fund of the new Masonic hall.

For a general family cathartic we confidently recommend Hood's Pills. They should be in every home medicine chest.

—Princess Alice, granddaughter of Queen Victoria, is reported to have become insane. The princess is a daughter of the late Grand Duchess Alice, is but 20 years of age, and was known as one of the most clever of the British Princesses. She is a favorite with the Queen, and was selected by her, it is said, as a bride for the Duke of York. A number of celebrated specialists are attending the unfortunate princess.

—Old and young, rich and poor, all who have used it have cause to bless Salvator Magna for the wonderful cures it has effected in Consumption, Bronchial Troubles and nervous disease. At all druggists in town.

—John Batchelor, a man about 40 years of age, was Tuesday committed to the county jail, Belleville, as a dangerous lunatic. He is a married man, and resided with his family at Coe Hill. He is an exceedingly dangerous man, and when placed in a cell became very violent.

It can do no harm to try Freeman's Worm Powders if your child is ailing, feverish or fretful.

—Mrs. Benj. Palmer, Hillier, was kicked by a horse on Wednesday, and driven with such force to the ground that her right hip sustained severe injury, and it was impossible for her to get up. With the assistance of a neighbor she was got into the house, and a doctor summoned, who pronounced one of the hip bones smashed. It is doubtful whether she will be able to walk this fall.

—RHEUMATISM CURED IN A DAY.—South American Rheumatic cure for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose benefits. 75 cents. Warranted by Dettor and Fullerton, Druggists.

—S. S. No. 16 have their school furnished with the Globe desks, which will add to the comfort of the pupils and add considerably to the interior appearance of the school.

I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nerveine, which did me more good than any $40 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely remedy. A trial bottle will convince you. Warranted by Dettor and Fullerton, Druggists."

NEWS FROM THE COUNTRY

Enterprise.

The lawn social at Mr. J. D. Wagar's on Friday night was a grand success. The lawn and premises were beautifully illuminated. The programme and amusements were of a very high order. The Misses Scanlan and cousins gave some choice duets and instrumental music. Misses Carriland, Mann, and Jackson good recitations. Messrs. C. D. Wagar and J. Ross Allen excellent music, also Mrs. Dr. Beaman and many others with full chorus, proceeds $21, to be applied towards furnishing the new church. Another grand social will be given at the residence of Mr. Alvin Jackson on Friday night, 16th inst. A good time promised. Rev. H. I. Allen and wife have gone east for a few days.

Gull Creek.

Mr. Editor, heavy rains Monday, 5th. Some were disappointed by it who were contemplating upon gathering some grain and hay that was standing out ready for drawing.

The people around here are rallying against the cattle fly, they are very numerous and it seems that the dumb brutes are suffering greatly by them, milking cows especially. There are symptoms of autumn drawing near, cold breezes occasionally, signs of frost upon the various tender vines and vegetables. These are fore-runners to warn us to prepare for the winter. Seasons are swiftly passing by, the berrying seasons are about over, though there are some that will hang on as long as possible.

Our public schools in this section have had a supply of some beautiful maps, which was greatly needed. Our esteemed Inspector deserves praise for his sympathy in behalf of poor schools in these rural sections. He has done, and is still doing much for their advancement.

The EXPRESS has had another fit for rambling, it has not made its appearance for last week. Come by and by.

This place has been noted for resort to a great number from various points during the summer, on account of the berries and the lakes convenient for fishing. A number of friends from Camden East have just come in. We wish them a happy time.

Albert Section.

Seeing there has been no correspondent from this place for any of our local papers. I thought I would take up my pen and give you a few ideas regarding this well farmed part of the country.

In the first place I must say there is no other portion of the country where one can hear so much news and have such a small origin.

A great number are attending the Kingston Fair this week.

During the past week nothing could be heard but the hum of the thrasher. Grain in this locality is a good yield.

Quite a number of the young folks attended the Ice Cream social given by the Y. F. S. C. E. of Odessa, on 2nd inst.

On Friday night last the barns and contents of Mr. Ed. Lafontesse were burnt. So far as has been learned the fire originated from a lantern that was hanging in the barn, while Mr. Lafontesse went to water a horse. We wish to extend to Eb. the sincere sympathy of the whole neighborhood.

On Sunday the 28th ult. a little boy visitor came to Mr. Fred Caton's, and it made Fred smile ever since.

Messrs. William and Herbert Howard intend going to Michigan in a few days. Rumor says three weddings are on the toe-path. I wonder who it can be.

Miss Maud Allen, who for the past two or three years has been in Ohio, is now visiting her father and relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. Eddie Clark is visiting friends in Selby.

Mrs. Baragar and son William, have returned home to Belleville, having been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Caton.

Mrs. John S. Aylsworth and daughter have been visiting friends.

THE BLONDE IN TROUSERS

STRANGE ACTIONS OF LIZZIE BENDORF OF NEW YORK

She Is Found In the Streets Dressed In Man's Garb and Says She Was Looking For Work—There is a Suspicion That She Is Insane and the Doctors Have Her In Hand.

New York, Aug. 31.—A startling flight of fancy was indulged in by Lizzie Bendorf in the hours verging on Sunday morning last. What she did seems to have constituted prima facie evidence of insanity, for the authorities have given her a place in Bellevue Insanity Pavilion, pending the verdict of specialists as to the exact quality of her wits.

The woman was first brought to the attention of the public by Officer Tinney of the Twenty-second-street squad. While patrolling his beat on First-avenue late Saturday night he was attracted by a curious-looking biped in masculine garb, but decidedly feminine in face and form. It wore baggy seersucker trousers that flapped in the breeze and a jumper of the long-shoreman stamp. Outside was a threadbare alpaca coat that threatened to go tottering down the delicate sloping shoulders.

On the woman's feet were big cowhide brogans that went flippity flop and awakened noisy reverberations along the deserted pavements. Her hat was a dilapidated species of the derby, and rested unnaturally upon the wearer's shoulders. The attire was striking, but not becoming. The woman herself—what was to be seen of her—appeared to be a good-looking blonde, apparently about 30 years old. She bore evidences of belonging to the hard-working class. Her hands were hard and muscular and her figure spare and short.

When asked to account for herself the woman replied that she "was out looking for work." When taken before Justice Taintor, at the Yorkville Police Court, she said that her husband had come home drunk and abused her. When he went out later she had put on his working clothes and left the house in search of employment.

The fair masquerader was remanded to Supt. Blake of the Society of Charities and Correction. According to that officer she was a pitiable object. There was a suspicion of the inebriating cup about her voice and manner. She wore her hair "dressed high," according to Supt. Blake, and appeared willing to divulge more to him than she had previously told. She stated that she was a Baltimorean and had lived out as a domestic. She had been out of work for two weeks. A week ago, while walking in Central Park, a man had offered her a home with him until she got another position. She went to live with him, and further than that she would not commit herself.

The woman was detained for examination as to her sanity. At Bellevue Hospital, where she was then taken, she was uncommunicative. Apparently she was rational, quiet and well-behaved. It was only to Dr. Stuart Douglas that she would speak of herself at all. When the subject of her conduct Saturday night was broached she suddenly affected a befogged expression and seemed to be all at sea. She did not know where she had lived, nor could she recall the name of the man she lived with. She had forgotten whether or not she kept house for him, and did not know whether he had done the cooking or whether the meals had been brought in from a restaurant. The doctor believed all this was affected.

The woman was examined at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Dr. Allen Fitch and Dr. Matthew D. Field. Their decision has not yet been arrived at owing to their doubt of the woman's veracity and her seemingly sane conduct.

The man involved has not yet put in an appearance in quest of his clothes.

A Weird Tale Which Comes From Cayuga

...walk only be built.
Mr. Burns moved that the clause be struck out. Mr. Carson seconded the motion.
The motion was carried.
Mr. Symington said the plank on the west side, would, if cut short, help to make a four foot walk on the east side, and the six foot walk ought to be rebuilt.
Mr. Burns said a new walk on the main street was more wanted than any other walk in town. On motion the third clause was adopted.
On motion the council went back to finance, and councillor Warner said the roll was now returned showing $596.03 uncollected. The roll was received and the collector's surties relieved.
Various reports were received and adopted.
Coun. Warner moved a by-law to fix a time and place for the nomination of candidates, and explained that in past years the nominations were made in the different wards, and at an early hour. What he proposed was to have all the nominations at the Town Hall at half-past seven in the evening.—Deferred to next meeting of council.
On motion, the council went into committee of the whole on the second reading of the by-law to regulate the collection of taxes. The blanks in the by-law were filled in, and the committee rose and so reported.
The by-law was read a third time, signed, sealed and finally passed.
Mr. Lowry called for the ayes and nays. Ayes.—Meng, McAlister, Stevens, Ward, Warner, Symington, Carson, Leonard, Joy, Nays.—Lowry, Burns, Lapum.
It was resolved by the council to leave Mr. McCay as collector this year. The by-law imposes one per cent per month on all unpaid taxes after Dec. 1st.
The surties of Robt. McCay, $10,000 himself, $3,000, Dennis Daly, $3,000 Nelson Dollar, were approved, and the clerk instructed to hand him the roll.
The collector, Mr. Henwood was ordered paid $150 for salary.
Geo. Lloyd $20 for till.
Mr. Perry submitted the specifications for the bridge over the Napanee river.
Adjourned for one week.

The experience of the manufacturers of the "Myrtle Navy" tobacco is a valuable lesson in political economy. Previous to their commencing that brand, the tobacco made of the finest Virginia leaf, was always held at fancy prices, and put up in some fancy style of manufacture. It was thought that only the rich would buy such tobacco, and at the old prices none but the rich could buy it. The makers of the "Myrtle Navy" resolved to strip the manufacture of the tobacco of all its fancy costs and put their profit at so low a rate that no competitor could possibly undersell them with the same quality of article. From the very first, until now, this rate of profit has been a uniform percentage upon its cost. It is their enormous sales which make their low rate of profit a satisfactory one in the aggregate, and also gives them their firm hold upon the market. Their success is an excellent lesson for manufacturers to study over.

Sirs, For several reasons we have relied on Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for all summer complaints. A few doses always gives relief and it never fails to cure. We think it a very valuable medicine; as precious as gold.

Thrashing Machine Burned.
Mr. Oliver Culley, Adolphustown, had the misfortune on Saturday night last to lose by fire his thrashing machine, caused by the boys setting fire to the pea straw. When leaving everything was supposed to be all right. He has been on the alert and will have a new machine at work not later than Monday next. He had been thrashing for Mr. Thos. Baget, Trampour-farm.
Our Public Schools.
Are the mainstay of our Dominion. In them are being cultivated the minds which are to be our future lawmakers and leaders in every walk in life. How essential it is that these minds should be united to strong healthy bodies. So many children suffer impurities and poisons in the blood that it is a wonder that they ever grow up to be men and women. Many parents cannot find words strong enough to express their gratitude to Hood's Sarsaparilla for its good effect upon their children. Scrofula, salt rheum and other diseases of the blood are effectually and permanently cured by this excellent medicine, and the whole being is given strength to resist the attacks of disease.

Confidence in a Reeve.
Last Thursday evening electors of Barrie township, met near Harlowe post office, and passed various resolutions touching their reeve, Thomas Tapping. The first resolution condemned the act of A. P. Wickwire, in his prosecution of Mr. Tapping for illegalities in the late Dominion election, claiming there was no just cause for complaint; the second regretted a possibility of Mr. Tapping having to resign the reeveship, but promising overwhelming support should he allow his name to be placed before them again. He was cordially thanked for his vigorous conduct of township affairs in the past. The third resolution adopted called for subscriptions from all parts of Addington to rescure Mr. Tapping the $500 the late trial entailed on him.
Ten Years at Kingston.
At Belleville on Saturday when "Coffin" MacDonald was asked by Judge Lazier if he had anything to say why the sentence of the court should not be passed upon him, he stated that since he had come out of the penitentiary the last time, he had endeavored to conduct himself properly. The public were against him, and although found guilty by the evidence, he did not commit the offence. Cmmmins, he said, had perjured himself. He referred to his marriage, and how he was mobbed and afterwards arrested and tried for bigamy, but was acquitted. He asked the judge to deal leniently with him for his wife's sake. At the conclusion of his remarks, His Honor said the offence committed was a serious one, and the person committing such an offence was dangerous to be at large. He then sentenced him to the penitentiary for ten years. The prisoner's wife was in the court room and appeared to feel keenly the position in which she was placed. The Intelligence has a short editorial concerning the ex-convict, which says: "In sentencing 'Coffin' MacDonald to ten years in the penitentiary, Judge Lazier deserves the thanks of law-abiding citizens. Having just completed a sentence in the penitentiary, MacDonald was found guilty of a second offence and properly received the full penalty. Such characters are happily rare, but are dangerous to society, which is only safe when they are under lock and key."

CHINESE SMUGGLERS.
Nine Magouellans Gathered in by the Montreal Police Last Night.
MONTREAL, Sept. 6.—For some time past the customs authorities have had suspicions that smuggling was going on among some of the Chinese residents. To-day they proceeded to the general store occupied by Sang Kue in Magouellans street. In an upper room was found a trunk containing about $350 worth of opium, some tobacco and cigars. These goods were confiscated and nine Chinamen who were found in the house were arrested.

Dead at 80.
UTICA, N. Y., Aug. 31.—Jacob Fox, a wealthy and prominent resident of Little Falls died yesterday, aged 80 years. He was a nephew of Capt. George I. Baker of New York, who killed Philip, son of Alexander Hamilton, in a duel on the Jersey shore on nearly the same spot where, three years later, his father fell before Aaron Burr.

SAVANNAH, N. Y., Aug. 31.—Meagre details of a peculiar tragedy in Cayuga County have just been received here.
A boy while cutting bundles for a thrashing machine near Cato in that county accidentally out the feeder's hand, which so infuriated the latter that he caught the lad up and threw him into the rapidly revolving cylinder, where he was ground to death before any one present could raise a hand to rescue him.
The brother of the unfortunate lad immediately felled the murderer with a blow from a pitchfork and then repeatedly plunged the tines of the fork through his body until he was dead.
All the thrashing hands stood by and witnessed the terrible affair, apparently paralyzed by horror and unable to interfere.

Fatal Magazine Explosion.
ROME, Aug. 31.—An explosion occurred yesterday at the Mancini magazine at San Severo, a town 17 miles northeast of Foggia. Two men were killed and two others were seriously injured. The noise of the explosion was terrific. This is the third time that the magazine has blown up.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Aug. 30.—The mercury fell to 30 degrees last night and a light frost nipped small vegetables and fruit.

TORONTO TOPICS.
TORONTO, Aug. 31.—Mr. Bryan Lynch, President of the local branch of the National League, telegraphed Hon. Edward Blake on Monday asking him to receive a reception at the houses of the Hon. Ministers of Ontario. Yesterday Mr. Lynch received this reply:
Have written you. In the meantime see letter to Frank Veigh. Will arrive to-morrow.
At a late hour last night Mr. Veigh had received the letter referred to, and the Young Liberals and the Home Rulers are as much in the dark as ever. Mr. Veigh thought that perhaps the letter suggested a union of the two interests to honor Mr. Blake.

Herbert H. Roach, Commandant of the Salvation Army, has issued his promised explanation with reference to the resignation of Mr. Philpott, and answers the latter's charges. Replying to Philpott's charges of extravagant salaries paid to the Headquarters Staff, the Commandant says that this statement is absolutely unfounded. The best proof of this is the fact that there are working at Headquarters 22 persons, 11 of whom are married. The total amount drawn for salary, divided among 22 persons, gives an average of only $8.51 per week. The Commandant is so persuasive upon Headquarters Staff was Mr. Philpott himself, who, when he left, was costing the Army, including his house rent as much as himself, my house rent not being chargeable to the funds.

The testimonial as to his loyalty which Philpott says he received from Commissioner Rea, the Commandant says, was merely a license to marry under the Salvation Army Marriage Act, and an official legal document giving him this license was commenced in the customary way with the words which he quotes. His assertion that he was compelled to resign is absolutely unfounded, says the Commandant, and is proved by his own written resignation, in which he admits that I was expecting another interview with him.

OLYMPIC CLUB, NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 7.
The fight in the Arena last night between Champion Dixon and Amateur Skelly resulted in a ridiculously easy victory for the colored pug. The battle lasted 8 rounds, during which Dixon made a veritable chopping block of Skelly, who was not half a match for the champion. The fight was for a purse of $2500, a bet of $5000 and the featherweight championship of the world.
OLYMPIC CLUB, NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 8.
Jack McLaughlin and Billy Myer fought in the Arena here last night at 138 pounds for the lightweight championship of the world, a purse of $10,000 and stakes of $5000 a side. McLaughlin had all the best of the battle and won in 15 rounds. He secured the first knock-down in the second round and drew the first blood in the seventh. In the 15th, after receiving repeated stinging blows, Myer was knocked to the ropes, failed to respond, and McLaughlin was declared the winner.

Hated of the Pinkertons.
HOMESTEAD, Aug. 31.—All the members of the Advisory Committee stand ready to give their evidence on the charge of conspiracy preferred by Secretary Lovejoy of the Carnegie Steel Co., but if arrests are made by Pinkertons trouble will certainly ensue. The people of Homestead are convinced that in the last week or two a number of the detectives have been sworn in by Sheriff McCleary as deputies.

"German Syrup"

Asthma. "I have been a great sufferer from Asthma and severe Colds every Winter, and last Fall my friends as well as myself thought because of my feeble condition, and great distress from constant coughing, and inability to raise any of the accumulated matter from my lungs, that my time was close at hand. When nearly worn out for want of sleep and rest, a friend recommended me to try thy valuable medicine, Bescbee's German Syrup. I am confident it saved my life. Almost the first dose gave me great relief and a gentle refreshing sleep, such as I had not had for weeks. My cough began immediately to loosen and pass away, and I found myself rapidly gaining in health and weight. I am pleased to inform thee—unsolicited—that I am in excellent health and do certainly attribute it to thy Bescbee's German Syrup. C. B. STRICKNEY, Pictou, Ontario."

THOMPSON AT PETROLEA.

HE SPEAKS ABOUT THE CANAL TOLLS QUESTION.

The Town and Surrounding Country Rises to the Occasion and Celebrates in the Good Old Fashion—The Visitors by Personal Observation Assured of the Importance of the District.

PETROLEA, Ont., Sept. 7.—A Liberal-Conservative demonstration and picnic, the like of which has never before been seen in the country, was held in the Groves of Dr. Dunfield and A. C. Edward here yesterday. The principal speakers were Hon. Sir John S. D. Thompson, Minister of Justice; Hon. Sir Adolphe Caron, Postmaster-General; Hon. George E. Foster, Minister of Finance; Hon. John Haggart, Minister of Railways and Canals, and Hon. John Carling, Minister of Agriculture. Various estimates place the assemblage at from 12,000 to 20,000, but the people were so scattered about the Grove that it was utterly impossible to form a correct estimate of their number.

The people of the town and surrounding districts spared no effort in the way of decoration to make the visit of the distinguished ministers a memorable one. Triumphant arches were erected on the line of the route to the picnic grounds, the principal among which were the grand square arch in front of the Grand Trunk station, the agricultural arch built entirely of corn stalks and grain in the sheaf, and the three pole derrick arch spanning the four cross roads at the entrance to the village of Markville. The latter was both unique and appropriate, being emblematic of the local oil industry, and the credit of its erection may be given to Mr. George Pearce, who is one of the most zealous workers in the Conservative cause in that village. All the arches and other available places along the route taken, as well as the entire grove were literally smothered in mottoes, flags and bunting, whilst in the business portion of the town the Grand Trunk station and the private residences were decorated with a lavish generosity without regard to cost.

The mammoth refineries of the Imperial Oil Company and the Premier Oil Company were visited en route. At the former the ministers and other distinguished guests who filled the long line of carriages alighted and were conducted through every branch of the immense establishment by Messrs. J. L. Englehart, F. A. Fitzgerald, Isaac Waterman, Smallman and Frank Ward, the stockholders of the company.

After leaving the Imperial Oil Works the visitors were conducted over Mr. Englehart's oil farm and witnessed the "shooting" of an oil-well and from thence to the grove, where a recherche luncheon, provided by the ladies of the town, and served by the leading young society ladies, awaited them.

After luncheon Dr. Gibson, president of the East Lambton Liberal-Conservative Association, read an address of welcome to the ministers, which was followed by able and patriotic addresses from all the ministers and other distinguished visitors.

At the close Hon. Sir John Thompson moved a vote of thanks to the ladies for the elegant luncheon.

The motion was seconded by Hon. George E. Foster, supported by the other Cabinet Ministers, and carried by a deafening round of applause.

The crowd, which were of an unusually orderly character, then dispersed and the Ministers and guests were driven back to town. The ministers were entertained by Mr. George Moncrieff, Q.C., M.P., at his residence prior to the departure of the special train which brought them from Ottawa.

Fully ten brass bands were in attendance, including the 7th Battalion Band of London.

Sir John on the Canal Tolls.
PETROLEA, Ont., Sept. 7.—The great gathering of Liberal-Conservatives yesterday to do honor to Dr. Moncrieff, M. P. for East Lambton, and to meet and welcome different members of the Dominion Cabinet, was a great success. Sir John Thompson's most important deliverance was that on the Government's policy regarding the tolls at the Welland Canal. It had violated no treaty, he said, and was ANOTHER ECHO.

FROM BROCKVILLE AS TO THE REMARKABLE CURATIVE
POWERS OF SALVA-
TOR MAGNUS.

Mrs. W. H. Breakell Raised from a Bed of Suffering After Medical Treatment and Various Remedies Had Failed—She Attributes Her Cure Altogether to the Use of this Great Remedy.

(From the Brockville Times Aug. 25th.)

This is an age of wonderful development in every branch of scientific research, but in none have the discoveries been more remarkable than in the treatment of the many diseases to which flesh is heir to. Of recent achievements in this direction there is no one that takes a more prominent place than "Salvator Magnus." Through its use some of the most remarkable cures known to the world have been effected. Readers of the newspapers have been made acquainted with a number of the more notable cures effected by this wonderful medicine after all other remedies had failed. Among them may be mentioned the cases of T. P. Sparham and Robert Gibbons in Brockville, that of Merritt Wilkings, of Leamington, upon whom his father had spent $500 in treatment but in vain, and who was cured of a disease of 11 years standing by three bottles of this remedy, and of the most miraculous rescue from the jaws of death of C. R. Stratton, of Grand Radnor, Mich., and of George E. Britan, of San Diego, Cal. Such remarkable cases of cures as these have given the wonderful medicine a reputation all over the Continent of America, and that it never fails to cure the diseases for which it is a specific is attested by the rapidly increasing demand there is for it.

Another instance of remarkable cure through the agency of this medicine having come to the knowledge of the Times a representative of the paper proceeded to make enquiry regarding it. The party who had been raised from a sick bed by the use of Salvator Magnus and restored to health is a lady well-known in Brockville, Mrs. W. H. Breakell, Wall street. After being treated by the most skillful physicians without receiving any benefit and after trying various preparations which did her no good, she tried Salvator Magnus with the result that she has been restored to perfect health. The story of her remarkable cure as told by herself is as follows. In conversation with the Times representative she said:—

"Towards the latter end of last year I was completely run down and prostrated with nervous debility. I had medical advice and also tried several remedies which were recommended to me, but none of them had any effect. I had almost given up in despair when four or five months ago I happened to read of the merits of Salvator Magnus and of certain cures that had been effected by its use, and as a last resort decided to give it a trial. After taking one bottle I felt so much better that I decided to continue it. I have kept on improving ever since I commenced taking the medicine. I have now taken seven bottles; I feel almost as well as ever and am confident that a couple of bottles more will effect a complete cure. I feel better than I have for years and I attribute it all to Salvator Magnus. My case was certainly a very serious one. Among the aggravated symptoms was a profuse bleeding at the nose, attended with severe frontal pain immediately over the eyes. The bleeding ceased altogether shortly after I began using the Magnus, and the pain has almost entirely disappeared. I cannot too strongly recommend Salvator Magnus to any who may be afflicted as I was, and am confident that if used according to directions it will effect a complete cure."

Mr. Breakell was also seen and he fully corroborated all that Mrs. Breakell had said regarding her wonderful restoration to health.

Such is the testimony of a lady of our own town regarding what Salvator Magnus has done for her. What it has done for one it will certainly do for others.

This medicine is manufactured by the Salvator Medicine Co. of Brockville, Ont., or Morristown, N. Y., who also manufacture that unrivalled cough mixture, Magnus Expectant and the Magic Pile Lotion. These remedies are for sale by all respectable druggists.

BROKEN RECORDS AT HARTFORD.

Zimmerman Defeats Windle and Taylor—Wells Gets a Third.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 7.—A very fast track and a stiff wind were partly responsible for the records that were broken at the bicycle races at Charter Oak Park yesterday. Zimmerman made a quarter mile in 27 seconds and a half mile in 1:01 4-5, breaking all previous records for both distances. He also won a place in a mile race, defeating Willie Windle, George F. Taylor and H. C. Tyler rather easily. Taylor made a half mile in 1:04 and Tyler and Windle each in 1:02 3-5, all smashing the records. Taylor was the only one of the four cracks that did not break the quarter mile record. G. C. Smith won the quarter mile race in 31 1-5 seconds, breaking the record for such a race in competition.

In the two-mile handicap the following was the result: Herman, Manhattan A.C. (180 yards), 1; Porter, Clinton (80 yards), 2; Wells, Toronto (100 yards), 3. Time 4:52.

In a circular sent to the electors of one of the Birmingham divisions by a tory clergyman recently was the following: "Mr. Gladstone has been for many years God's scourge on this nation, and I should not myself be surprised if, in further anger, God should permit him to return to power. The Irish question is very simple. Mr. Gladstone is behind home rule, the pope is behind Mr. Gladstone and Satan is behind the pope." Labouchere's Truth advises the London Times to hire the author of the circular.

Colorado is usually thought of only as a mining state, but with the success and spread of irrigation she is pushing to the front as a fruit-producing state. A very large crop of the most luscious watermelons in the country is raised in Colorado, and the product is of such importance that Watermelon day is a special holiday all over the eastern portion of the state; the governor usually attends the festivities at the watermelon growing center and excursionists attend in thousands. This year Colorado has produced 2,200,000 quarts of strawberries.

The rattlesnake's rattle is like the sound which would be produced by the rattling of a number of peas in a paper bag. This represents the slowness of the sound. We are accustomed to pictorial representations in which the reptile is made to look very angry and energetic, the tail erect in a manner to suggest a loud alarm. Accordingly, when one hears it for the first time one is surprised to find the noise so slight. The sound, instead of being a rattle, is rather a tinkle, and perhaps it has a rather more metallic character than the motion of the shaking of peas in a paper bag would represent. But, slight as the sound is, the person who has never met one of these reptiles before and who, without seeing the snake, hears for the first time among mountain rock or prairie grass its delicate yet wonderfully distinct warning, knows instantly who and what his neighbor is.

The processes by which nature forms such accumulations of silver are very interesting. It must be remembered that the earth's crust is full of water, which percolates everywhere through the rocks, making solutions of elements obtained from them. These chemical solutions take up small particles of the precious metal which they find scattered here and there. Sometimes the solutions in question are hot, the water having got so far down as to be set a boiling by the internal heat of the globe. Then they rush upward, picking up the bits of metal as they go. Naturally, heat assists the performance of this operation. Now and then the streams thus formed, perpetually flowing hither and thither below ground, pass through cracks or cavities in the rocks, where they deposit their loads of silver. This is kept up for a great length of time, perhaps thousands of years, until the fissure or pocket is filled up. Crannies permeating the stony mass in every direction may become filled with the metal, or occasionally, a chamber may be so full of it, as if a myriad hands were fetching the treasure from all sides and hiding away a future bonanza for some lucky prospector to discover in another age.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.

The Most Effectual Cure For Gout and Rheumatism.—A frequent cause of these complaints is the inflammatory state of the blood, attended with bad digestion, lassitude, and great debility, showing the want of a proper circulation of the fluid, and that impurity of the blood greatly aggravates these disorders. Holloway's Pills are of so purifying a nature that a few doses taken in time are an effectual preventive against gout and rheumatism, but anyone that has an attack of either should use Holloway's Ointment also, the powerful properties of which are combined with the effects of the Pills, ensure a certain cure. The Ointment should be thoroughly rubbed into the parts affected at least twice a day, after they have been sufficiently fomented with warm water to open the pores of the skin, and the introduction of the Ointment to the glands.

Electricity, as applied by the Owen Electric Belt,

Is now recognized as the greatest boon offered to suffering humanity. It is fast taking the place of drugs in all nervous and rheumatic troubles, and will effect cures in seemingly hopeless cases where every other known means has failed. It is nature's remedy, and by its steady, soothing current it is readily felt.

RHEUMATISM

It is a well known fact that medical science has utterly failed to afford relief in rheumatic cases. We venture the assertion that although Electricity has only been in use as a remedial agent for a few years, it has cured more cases of Rheumatism than all other means combined. Some of our leading physicians, recognizing this fact, are availing themselves of this most potent of nature's forces.

TO RESTORE MANHOOD

Thousands of people suffer from a variety of nervous diseases, such as Seminal Weakness, Impotency, Lost Manhood, Weak Back, etc., that the old modes of treatment fail to cure. There is a loss of nerve force or power that cannot be restored by medical treatment, and any doctor who would try to accomplish this by any kind of drugs is practising a dangerous form of charlatanism. Properly treated

THESE DISEASES CAN BE CURED

Electricity, as applied by the Owen Electric Belt and Suspensory, will most assuredly do so. It is the only known remedial agent that will supply what is lacking, namely, nerve force or power, impart tone and vigor to the organs and arouse to healthy action the whole nervous system.

GLADSTONE AND THE MEETING WITH THE COW.

The Queen at Balmoral—There Are Eleven Election Cases Pending—Hopes That
Mrs. Maybrick Will Be Liberated—
The Board of Trade Under Secretary,
Mr. Thomas Burt, Defends Carnegie.

New York, Sept. 5.—The London correspondent of The Tribune telegraphs:
Mr. Gladstone seems no worse for his adventurous with a cow. The accident first thrilled and finally amused the town. Still it might have been serious, and Mr. Gladstone's friends hope that when next he takes his walks abroad and meets a cow he will take steps to complete the familiar formula and add between him and it the safe space of three acres. It is odd how prone he is to meet with untoward accidents. During his administration of 1880-85 he for some time conducted the affairs of the nation in a skull cap. Stepping out of his carriage one night he stumbled, fell on his head and received a wound, the scar of which was long visible. A couple of years ago he was knocked down by a cab in the streets of London. That was the occasion that drew from "Cabby" the remark, "Well, of all the old gents I ever saw that is the most agile." Instead of examining whether he was hurt, Mr. Gladstone dashed after the offending
"Cabby" and insisted on taking his number. It was only the other day, on the eve of the general election, that the historical gingerbread nut was flung at him. And now, going out for a walk, he meets what is probably the only mad cow in Flintshire, which resents his kindly inquiring gaze by rushing at him, knocking him down and trampling on him.

Movements of Royalty.

The Queen has settled down for the autumn at Balmoral, her favorite home and full of recollections of her early married life. She intends to stay there till the middle of November, after which she returns

Osborne, where for many years she has been accustomed to spend Christmas.

The Prince of Wales is still at Homburg, where he intends to stay till next Friday.

GILBERT ISLANDS' SEIZURE.

England Intends to Rule in the South Sea.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—The Australian steamer from Butaritari, Gilbert Islands, brings news of the seizure of the islands in June by Great Britain. The story is given in private letters under the date of June 20, and contains full details of the seizure of the islands by the British ship Royalist, on June 12, the reading of a proclamation of annexation, the pulling down of the King's flag and the hoisting of the British colors.

This, following on the seizure of Johnson Islands and the purchase of Nihiu Island, indicates that England intends to rule in the South Seas.

The King of Butaritari has only recently returned from a trip to San Francisco, undertaken, it was thought, to induce the United States to extend a protectorate over the Gilbert Islands. While in San Francisco the King talked of going to Washington, but he received no encouragement and ill-health forced him to return home.

The Butaritari correspondent, who witnessed the annexation ceremonies, sends the following account:

June 12.—On Sunday the British man-of-war Royalist appeared in the harbor. Her captain landed in a steam-launch, and with several officers and an interpreter called on the King. There, in public audience, with all the foreign and native residents of Butaritari gathered about, he read this proclamation: "Her Majesty Victoria, Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Brittain, having this day assumed a protectorate over the Gilbert Islands, I would remind all residents in the group other than natives, that it is contrary to law to supply firearms, ammunition or intoxicating liquors to any natives. Given under my hand at Apamama, the 27th of May. Signed, E. D. H. M. Davis,
Captain of H.M.S. Royalist and Deputy Commissioner."

Then Commander Davis stepped forward and said in loud tones: "If you will now have your flag hauled down I will give you a nice new one to put up."

So the old King, who seemed dazed, ordered his flag, which had floated from the royal pole for several years, hauled down and the British flag was run up in its place.
As soon as the English colors were shown the Royalist fired a salute, but there was no enthusiasm on shore.

The Americans here, who attribute this action of England to the King's recent American trip, are furious, but they can do

Election Petitions.

Eleven election petitions are pending, arising out of the general election. Of these not less than nine are lodged against anti-Home Rulers. In the highly improbable case of each seat being transferred, this would mean the adding of 18 to the Ministerial majority. Among the seats attacked is Mr. Arthur Balfour's, at Manchester. Since it is necessary before action is taken to lodge considerable amounts of money to cover the cost, it follows that the election petitions are not presented without seriously considering the nature of evidence available. Doubtless owing to this condition the threatened petition against Mr. Morley at Newcastle has been abandoned.

The Maybrick Case.

The hopes of Mrs. Maybrick's friends are fixed upon Mr. Asquith. If he comes to a consideration of the case with any bias in his mind it will probably be in favor of the unhappy woman. About the time her trial was going forward he chanced to be briefed in pretty constant communication with Sir Charles Russell. It is no secret that up to the last that eminent advocate was strongly convinced the case against his client was, to say the least, not proven. Sir Charles threw himself into the advocacy of Mrs. Maybrick with generous unprofessional ardor and was much moved when his efforts failed and she was found guilty. Of course if the Home Secretary takes any action in the matter it will be only after careful inquiry, conducted upon strictly judicial principles. Nevertheless those concerned for Mrs. Maybrick may reasonably rejoice that the matter has been removed from the hands of Mr. Matthews to those of his successor at the Home Office.

Defends Carnegie.

It is characteristic of Mr. Thomas Burt that at the time when Mr. Carnegie is under the ban of trades unions, and Mr. Kerr Hardie has found it judicious to return £100 contributed by the Homestead proprietor to his election expenses, the new Under Secretary to the Board of Trade should come forward and boldly defend him in his monthly report to the members of the Northumberland Miners' Association. Mr. Burt says he has no reason to regard Mr. Andrew Carnegie as a bad employer. "When I was at Pittsburgh some years ago," he adds, "the leading trade unionists at that time spoke of him as one of the best. Certainly no one has spoken more strongly in favor of trade unions, no one has denounced strikes more vehemently, no one has insisted more resolutely upon courtesy and conciliation on the part of managers of large industrial concerns than Mr. Carnegie." A Dominion Surplus.

OTTAWA, Sept. 5.—A statement just published shows that the revenue of the Dominion for the fiscal year ending on June 30 was $36,903,262 and the expenditure $36,829,803, leaving a surplus of $73,459. The surplus is not as large as that of the last three or four years owing to Parliament having lopped off duties last year, thereby reducing the revenue by $3,000,000 at one stroke.

Freezing Out Canadian Vessels.

SABLET STE. MARIE, Mich., Sept. 5.—It is believed that the new regulation will freeze out many of the Canadian boats. The Algonquin and other vessels are already on the way to Chicago to go into the grain-carrying trade. This is taken as a sure indication that the talk of the Canadian Government about returning to vessel-owners all the tolls collected by the United States at the Soo is merely for effect.

Action for Libel.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 5.—Mr. Mowat, one of the members of the new Executive of the Northwest Assembly, has entered suit against Ex-Premier Haultain for libel, claiming $5000 damages. Haultain is alleged to have stated that Mowat tried to bribe certain members to accept the speakership.

Sullivan at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 5.—The special train bearing Sullivan, the pugilist, arrived here at 5 Sunday morning 60½ hours from New York. Sullivan was driven to a boarding house in Rampart-street. He attended church during the day, and was cheered and run after whenever he appeared on the street.

Corbett En Route.

CHARLOTTE, N.C., Sept. 5.—The special train with Corbett, the pugilist, and party on board reached here Sunday. It remained an hour, and Corbett left the train and exercised in the open air, to the gratification of

A SHIP DESTROYED.

A Bark Laden With Gunpowder Blows Up.

GREENOCK, Sept. 5.—The people of this city and neighborhood were startled Saturday by a deafening roar that was subsequently ascertained to have been caused by a powder explosion. The new bark Auchmountain, with 20 tons of gunpowder on board, had been lying at anchor in the Firth of Clyde, off Greenock. Those persons who happened to be looking in the direction of the bark say they saw a blinding flash of light, which was followed by a concussion that shook the earth. Then a dense smoke arose and when it lifted a little it was seen the bark had been blown to pieces. Her poop deck, hatches and deckhouses were blown to an immense height, while her masts were broken off, falling alongside the wreck. The topgallant foremast was blown out and the whole forward part of the vessel was torn to pieces. Aft, the destruction was as complete. Above the water line the planking was blown out, leaving huge holes, while below many of the butts were started and the water poured in in torrents.

On shore the effects of the explosion were extensive. The windows of houses and shops along the water front were shattered, and some of the houses swayed to and fro as though moved by an earthquake. A particular feature of the accident is that nobody aboard the bark was killed, although some of the crew were badly burned and others were thrown into the water. No explanation of the accident has yet been advanced.

A despatch from Glasgow, which is 22½ miles from this port, says that the explosion was heard there. The people of Glasgow thought it was an earthquake. Reports from various places near here say that windows were shattered in a great number of houses within a radius of five miles.

SOLD HIS SON.

An Old Negro's Plan to Save Himself from Prison.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 5.—Ben Daniels, a negro, 83 years old, is confined in the station house waiting for guards to take him to the coal mines, where he is to spend the balance of his life. Daniels was sent up for life from Forsyth on a charge of arson. When he was tried he had no money with which to pay lawyer's fees, and the manner in which he secured the services of a lawyer was novel. He has six children—three boys and three girls. One of the boys is 9 years old. Daniels agreed to bind his son to the lawyer until he was 21 years old provided the lawyer would defend him. The papers were signed and the boy delivered to the lawyer. The lawyer did all he could to clear the old negro, but the evidence was too conclusive and Daniels was sent up for life.

FREIGHT DISCRIMINATION.

The Interstate Commerce Commission After the Railways.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The Interstate Commerce Commission is preparing to shake up the trunk lines again. It has been quietly collecting documentary evidence against several of the fast freight lines, and it will be ready very soon to submit these cases to the grand jury. The guilty roads are connected with the Lehigh and Wabash, Dispatch and Lackawanna fast freight lines.

Action for Seduction.

HAMILTON, Sept. 5.—An action for seduction and breach of promise is brought by Lewis Macadam, this city, on behalf of his daughter, Caroline Macadam, against Joseph Devine, also of this city. Each action is for $2500 damages. The plaintiff claims that his daughter was seduced on promise of marriage. The defendant denies both claims.

The Cowardly Life Boat Crew.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—The Lake Seamen's Benevolent Association has offered a reward of $10 for the recovery of any of the bodies from the schooner City of Toledo recently lost in Lake Michigan. The Association charges that the life-saving crew acted with great cowardice. It is stated in the communication that the Association can prove that two-thirds of the crews of all the life-saving stations on the lakes are not fit for the position that they hold.

Killed By a Blow.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—During a row in front of No. 4 Baxter-street Isaac Barnett, who lives somewhere in East 75th-street, struck Thomas Cowes under the ear. Cowes died before the ambulance arrived. Barnett was arrested. Cowes' residence is un-

The Havre papers trace the cause of the infection to the steamer Rugia allowing passengers to land and spend several hours walking about town and frequenting refreshment houses. Some of these persons complained at the time of being ill.

The statistics of the Board of Health confirm the report of a slight improvement of affairs. Since the outbreak of cholera 305 persons have died of it in Paris and its suburbs.

Dreadful Ravages in Hamburg.

HAMBURG, Sept. 7.—Since noon yesterday 674 new cases of cholera and 264 deaths have been reported. According to official figures there have been since its outbreak here 6798 cases and 2940 deaths. Little reliance is placed in these figures, however, as there is a strong suspicion that they do not begin to show the full ravages of the disease.

The Report from Antwerp.

ANTWERP, Sept. 7.—The cholera situation in this city is satisfactory. Since the outbreak of the disease here 75 persons have been attacked. Of this number 22 have been cured, 25 died and 28 are still undergoing treatment.

Twelve new case of cholera and 10 deaths have occurred at Boom and 9 new cases and 7 deaths at Bornhem since the outbreak of the disease in those places.

No Danger in Berlin.

BERLIN, Sept. 7.—Dr. Guttman at a meeting of the Sanitary Commission yesterday announced that there was now not the slightest ground for fear of a cholera epidemic in this city. Cholera was steadily diminishing and only 10 suspicious cases were taken to the hospitals during the forenoon of yesterday.

The sanitary measures adopted by the German authorities are stopping the importation of Russian rags, many thousand bales of which are waiting on the frontier owing to importers declaring their inability to execute the required regulations in regard to fumigation and disinfection.

Thirty-one Deaths at Paris.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—Four cases of choleraic disorders occurred yesterday in St. Ouen, a village four miles north of this city.

The frightful suddenness with which some persons succumb to the disease is shown in the case of a workman at Fermaize, in the Department of Marne, who died in great agony two hours after being attacked with illness of a choleraic nature.

Thirty-one persons died in this city yesterday of choleraic disorders, and 329 patients suffering from the same malady were admitted to the hospitals during same time.

Twelve Deaths Reported in London.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—In the weekly mortality returns the Registrar-General, after giving the death rate of London as 16 per 1000, states that 12 deaths were due to cholera or choleraic diarrhoea.

Quarantine at Detroit.

DETROIT, Sept. 7.—The Board of Health has declared to establish a 20-day quarantine in Detroit, against emigrants coming by way of Canada into the United States. As in New York, 20 days will be the limit, but it does not follow that all or any emigrants will be detained that length of time. If there is any sickness on the train suggestive of cholera the passengers can be held 20 days.

SUSPENSION OF EMMIGRATION.

Canada Will Impose the Same Restrictions as the States.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—Sir Charles Tupper, High Commissioner of Canada, acting on orders from Ottawa, has advised the consul at Dieppe and all concerned that Canada is determined to impose the same quarantine as the United States against all emigrants, except Scandinavian and British. All other emigrant business is suspended, though in view of German and other emigrants waiting to proceed to Canada it is thought a special steamer might be sent to Quebec prepared to undergo quarantine.

Stops All Immigrants.

A Reuter's telegram from Montreal says the Quebec Provincial Board of Health has absolutely stopped the entrance of all emigrants. If this is true, it quite upsets the Canadian Government's stoppage, which does not apply to British or Scandinavian emigrants. If untrue, it should be denied, to prevent further injury to passenger traffic.

SIR JOHN ABBOTT'S CONDITION.

There Has Been No Improvement in His Health.

MONTREAL, Sept. 7.—Sir John Abbott came to town from Ste. Anne's yesterday morning and about noon paid a visit to the Royal Victoria Hospital. He lunched at the St. James' Club and in the afternoon left for home. His appearance shows a great change. The old man erect, who used to tramp around Parliament Hill in the coldest days of last winter, was now half doubled, and everybody who saw him must have been convinced that Sir John Abbott could not much longer retain his position as Premier of the Dominion. It was rumored around the Windsor last evening that Sir John Abbott would formally resign this week, and that Sir John Thompson would succeed him before next Sunday. In that event Montreal politicians believe that the new Premier would ask Hon. W. R. Meredith to become Minister of Justice; that Lieutenant-Governor Angers would be called to the leadership of the Senate in place of Sir John Abbott, and that Sir Adolphe Caron would become the inhabitant of Spencerwood, even while the enquiry before the Royal Commission is in progress.

A GREAT CROP IN MANITOBA.

Not the Slightest Damage Done by Frost.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 7.—The people of Manitoba are now to be congratulated upon harvesting one of the finest crops this province has produced for years. Reports gathered by the C. P. R. Telegraph Company yesterday show 95 per cent. of the grain to have been cut and over 20 per cent. stacked. Not the slightest damage has been done by frost, and the sample is a magnificent one. Nothing more could be asked.

A Winnipeg paper, speaking of the reports last night, says: "What more could be asked? The facts which the reports published reveal are fraught with momentous import to the province. They mean that prosperity has come, they mean a great rush of immigrants, they mean plenty of money and good times all around. A great harvest has been safely garnered, and Manitobans can afford to rejoice and be thankful. The reports speak for themselves."

SENTENCED TO TWENTY YEARS.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—M. Grenier, a clerk in the Navy Department, convicted of conveying secret official documents relative to French defences to Captain Henry D. Borup of the Ordnance Department of the United States army, who was acting as military attache of the American legation in this city, has been sentenced to 20 years' penal servitude, to be followed by 20 years' banishment from France.

SHOOTING AT CORNWALL.

A Former Resident of the Town Kills a Constable.

CORNWALL, Sept. 7.—Cornwall was shocked yesterday by one of the most unprovoked murders ever committed in Canada. James McMahon, a former resident of this town, but absent for two years, shot and killed special constable John R. Davy while undergoing arrest for shooting two other men, Antoine Lafesse and Antoine Lefebvre. A quarrel over some money caused the trouble. Feeling is very high in the town and the crowds from the country are greatly excited.

Fire At Rodney, Ont.

RODNEY, Ont., Sept. 7.—A disastrous fire broke out in Dr. McDonald's office about 3 o'clock yesterday and entirely consumed the Morris and Mistelle frame blocks. Losses are as follows: S. B. Morris' building $2000, insured; L. Mistelle, $1600, insurance $1000; L. H. Dickson, stock of harness $200, no insurance; Miss Ostrander, millinery, $150, no insurance; Dr. McDonald, house and office, $800; A. Hoskins, barber, loss small; Miss Morrison, dressmaker, loss small; J. C. Whitney, house, loss small; Dr. Dorland, loss by water and removal small; J. W. McKay, damage to building small; Rotz & Co., loss small.

New Evidence in the Borden Case.

STAUNTON, Mass., Sept. 7.—Mrs. Marshall of Pawtucket went to Fall River on Aug. 4. While she and her daughter were passing along in the street in the rear of the Borden House they both saw a rough-looking man climb the fence from the Borden's yard, enter a buggy and drive off. Mrs. Marshall remarked at the time the villainous appearance of the man. Her illness is her excuse for not coming forward before. Her evidence will be read at the next hearing of the case, and

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. C. C. Orneen,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. KINGHOLM,
Conway, Ar.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ANDERSON, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

UNITED HOSPITAL AND DISPENSARY,
Boston, Mass.

ALLEN C. SMITH, Pres.,

The Centaur Company, 71 Murray Street, New York City.

California. He left Mr. Lewis at Church and King-streets. At 10.30, Lewis called at Wanless' jewelry store in Yonge-street, and a clerk in the store thinks he saw him again in Yonge-street at 12.30. Since that time no trace of the old gentleman has been found, although diligent search has been made for him in the city. Mr. Shier is afraid that something has happened to his father-in-law, otherwise he would have returned home Monday night. He had a valuable gold watch and chain on his person, but no great quantity of money. The missing man was well acquainted in the city, having formerly carried on business as a tail-hanger and locksmith.

Lewis wore a brown tweed suit and felt hat. Six years ago Napoleon Wells, a traveling salesman, married a Miss Booth in England and came to this country. Their married life was not happy and Mrs. Wells obtained a divorce and the custody of their 5-year-old son. Mrs. Wells and her mother removed to Detroit a year ago. Recently she married a Toronto man by the name of Sterling. Mr. and Mrs. Sterling were in Toronto preparing to remove here. The little son had been left in Detroit in care of his grandmother. Yesterday they were on the street near their home when a coupe was driven slowly by the house and overtook them. A man whom Mrs. Booth recognized as Wells jumped out, ran to the sidewalk and seized the child. Mrs. Booth screamed for help. Wells threw her down on the sidewalk, sprang into the coupe with the child and was driven rapidly away. The police have no clue to Wells' whereabouts.

The Toronto General Trusts Company yesterday filed the will of the late Sir Daniel Wilson. Here are its terms: "I give and bequeath to my niece, Jeanie Helen, the eldest daughter of my sister, Jeanie Wilson, the sum of $2000; all the rest and residue of my estate, both real and personal, I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter, Jeanie Sybil Wilson, for her own sole use and benefit absolutely." The will was signed Oct. 22 last. The real estate is the house and lot, corner St. George and Russell-streets, valued at $12,000. The personal consists of $3915 in household goods, library, etc., $15,000 in life assurance, $37,819 in bank shares and stocks, $6200 in debentures and $1495 in cash. The total value of the estate is put at $76,430.

Field Captain William Stuart of the Ottawa lacrosse team was on trial before Justices Wingfield and Miller, yesterday, charged with an aggravated assault on J. G. Warbrick of the Toronto team, whom he slugged in last Saturday's match. Stuart was committed for trial and released on bail.

About a month ago James R. Kidd, cashier of the Cudaby Pork Packing Co. of Salt Lake City, Utah, left that place taking with him, it is said, $2500 of the company's funds. He was located in Toronto and last night Detective Cuddy arrested him on a warrant charging him with appropriating the missing funds. The information was sworn to by an officer of the trust company which guaranteed Kidd.

The Toronto Presbytery assembled in St. Andrew's Church schoolroom yesterday morning, and Rev. J. Mutch, M.A., was elected Moderator.

The resignation of Rev. Dr. Kellogg as pastor of St. James-square Presbyterian Church was accepted. The reverend gentleman is going to India to assist in translation of the Bible.

Arthur York, charged with contributing to the death of his infant child, was lodged in the County Jail yesterday. The child was found dead by its mother and the body was covered with bruises. York states that he is not the father of the child, his wife having induced him to marry her after she had been rashly unfortunate.

Robert Simmons, a laborer on the electric railway, was struck by the Bruce train on the Canadian Pacific at the St. Clair-avenue crossing yesterday. He was coming out of the Grand Trunk yard, and when on the crossing did not notice the train approaching. He was deaf, and Mrs. John Harknett, who runs a grocery store close to the track, shouted to him to get out of the way. He could not hear and was knocked against the fence and received serious injuries. The ambulance was telephoned for and removed him to the Hospital.

The death of James Brickenden, the victim of the fire in Wilson's Vinegar Works, Bay-street, was the cause of an inquest which was held in Morris' Hotel, Queen and Leslie-streets, last night, by Coroner Johnson. County Crown Attorney Dewar was present in behalf of the Crown.

The Behring Sea Arbitration.

Rome, Sept. 7.—It is semi-officially stated that A. G. Railway Collision.

SCOTTVILLE, N.Y., Sept. 7.—There was a rear end collision at Canawangus crossing at the W. N. Y. and P. R. R. at 6 o'clock last evening. An eastbound passenger train was at the station when the special freight dashed into the rear coach, smashing it badly. No passengers are reported seriously injured. Conductor Savage and the engineer of the freight engine were seriously hurt.

Three Steamers a Week.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 7.—The C.P.R. lake steamers will in future make three sailings weekly instead of two, on account of the increase in fall freights, as each boat will carry 1800 tons on each trip; the three boats will contribute $1000 per week at the Soo Canal to Uncle Sam's exchequer.

Frick's Assailant.

A CLERGYMAN'S DEATH.

THE REV. ROBT. HARDING PASSES PEACEFULLY AWAY.

A Memorial Address Given a Biographical Sketch of His Life, by the Rev. Arthur Jarels, Describing the Unsettled Times of His Early Life—How He Came to Join the Clergy—Some of His Last Words—His Funeral.

Our obituary column announces the death of the Rev. Robert Harding on Friday last in his 89th year. He was a clergyman of the Old School, now too quickly disappearing, and an uncompromising churchman, yet respected by those with whom he differed, as much as he was beloved by those of his own faith. For some years Mr. Harding has been on the supernumerary list, although whenever his health permitted he invariably took such ministerial duty as his strength enabled him to discharge.

Although in deference to his own express wish, no funeral decorations were placed in the church, the services on Sunday were arranged with a view to impressing the lessons of his life and death upon the congregation with which he had been of late identified. At evensong, instead of the usual sermon an address, was delivered by the Rector, a verbatim report of which we are enabled to present to our readers.

THE ADDRESS.

On Friday there passed away from our midst, one whose venerable presence has long been familiar to the members of this congregation and to our fellow townsmen generally. The Rev. Robert Harding, formerly rector of Adolphustown, and for the past nine years retired from the active ministry has gone to his reward, bowed down at last with the weight of nearly ninety years upon him, fifty-three of which were spent for his Master as an "Ambassador of Christ and steward of the mysteries of God." These last few years of patient waiting for the coming of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ were spent with us in Napanee, whither he came that he might receive the rest and medical aid which his declining years and failing health required, and it seems but right that we should not let this day pass the first time we have met since he was taken away from us without some reference to him and his life and happy peaceful passage to the Paradise of God, where with all those that have departed this life in the faith of Christ he awaits the perfect consummation and bliss both in body and soul of the eternal and everlasting glory.

My personal knowledge of my venerable brother does not extend over many years. I was almost a stranger to him when two years ago I was sent here as your minister, and found that it was ordered in the providence of God that he should be a parish-ioner of this church.

The position of a retired clergyman is not an easy one to fill with honour and satisfaction. It is not easy for one who has led the soldiers of Christ and borne His standard for more than a generation to take his place quietly in the ranks and abdicate the place of leadership and the responsibility of direction and control. The trial must be especially difficult when there is little failure of mental and intellectual vigour when the eye is scarce dim nor the natural force abated, when the interest in the affairs of the church is as strong as ever. Mr. Harding played that part, with what dignity and honour you all can testify, but perhaps I am in a better position to understand and appreciate than any who are now listening to me. Whilst his great fund of experience and practical knowledge was always at my disposal, it was never officiously displayed or obtruded upon myself or the parish. He was ready to lend a hand in any enterprise in which we were engaged, and so long as his strength permitted, it was his delight to frequent the courts of the Lord's house whenever these doors were open. Always diffident of his own abilities, he often seemed to shrink from taking part in the public service, lest his bodily weakness might in any way mar the efficiency of his ministrations. His great accuracy, clearness of enunciation, and pleasing intonation, rendered these fears groundless, and it is gratifying for us to look back upon these voluntary services, so cheerfully rendered, so acceptable to you, and so helpful to me, and to thank God that we should have had amongst us in his latter days so faithful a witness to the truth of God and the comfort of his grace.

Mr. Harding was born in Limerick, Ireland in A. D. 1804. His early life was for examination with a view to obtaining degrees in arts and divinity to which his scholarship entitled him, but he invariably put the idea from him, thinking that ecclesiastical honours would be, for him at least, a temptation to spiritual pride.

His first appointment was that of travelling missionary, a title (in those days) almost equivalent to that of free lance in the church's border warfare. His labours extended from the Carrying place on the coast to near Coburg on the west, and as far north as he chose to go, and many a thriving town almost verging now on the dignity of city proportions, knew no ministrations in its cradle days, but the faithful, if necessarily infrequent services of this earnest missionary. It was during this period that he met with an accident in pursuing his labours, which, without lessening his activity, left its mark upon him for life. After two years of this peripatetic service, he was offered and accepted the more settled mission of Omeme, where he remained for twelve years, laying the foundation of what is now a prosperous church centre. From this he removed in 1858 to Adolphustown and remained its rector for 26 years. Of his work there it is not necessary for me to speak. The proximity of that parish and the close communication between it and our own renders any such reference unnecessary. The last nine years of his life were spent in Napanee, and to-morrow e'en he is laid in his last earthly resting place among his people at Adolphustown, we shall bring him here to rest awhile in the sanctuary where his willing feet were wont to tread, whilst we hold communion with God, with one another, and with his soul, freed now from all trammels of the flesh, yet not divided from us and from all those who are joined together in the blessed Communion of Saints.

Of Mr. Harding's character it is superfluous for me to speak. He wore no mask and his mind and soul were reflected in his face. If I were asked what was his leading characteristic I should say it was his downrightness and singleness of heart. But it would be in very bad taste for me or anyone else to eulogise in public one who had in his lifetime such an aversion to notoriety and display.

It was my privilege to be with him much in his latter hours. On Monday he received his last communion, following the service from beginning to end, with heartfelt response that showed how truly comfortable a thing it was when earthly comfort was past. It will not I trust, be lifting the veil of privacy too much if I relate a little incident which shows how deep a sentiment underlay the somewhat prim and formal semblance that many had not the eyes to see below. Whilst I was saying the office at his bedside and my hand was extended over him in absolution, he seized it with his and pressed it to his brow, as if eager to appropriate and realize in all its fullness the message of pardon which he felt was sent him from his Lord. The action seemed to reverse our positions, as if the dying priest were invoking a benediction upon him whose official act it was to bestow it and I trust his parting words, "God bless you and prosper all your work for Him in this parish" may be abundantly fulfilled to our mutual advance in holiness and in the fear of God. And now one or two reflections upon his life and example may not be amiss.

His example is of special value from this circumstance, that so much of his life was passed as a layman, and therefore laymen can best appreciate the lessons it has for us. For 18 years after reaching man's estate he led the life of an honest, Godfearing, hard working churchman. But when God called him to "go up higher and do other work in the vineyard which required him to give up his home and all its comforts, immediately he "conferred not with flesh and blood, but as soon as he recognized the call he forsook all and followed where the hand of God should lead him.

It is not often that those who are engaged in the business of life are thus summoned like S. Matthew from the receipt of custom and bidden to assume the duties of the ministry of the word and sacraments. How many are there who would be prepared for such a sacrifice? But certain it is that sooner or later some call shall come to each of us (if it has not come already and been unheeded), some call of a special personal character to take some definite and particular step in the spiritual life. If yours has been a life of sin the call will be to "cease to do evil and learn to do well." If you have already begun to serve God it will be a call to serve Him in some higher or holier vocation, and the voice will be unmistakable. It may be to take some particular step which it is plainly your duty to take. It may be to go forward in some happy Island seems never to be entirely free. His thrilling accounts of the ordinary life led by people of his class in those troublous times might furnish a chapter in a sensational novel. Each loyalist house was turned into a castle; at night every door must be barricaded and old and young retired to rest with arms ready at their side. Strict watch was kept and yet with all these precautions, murder and rapine were of frequent occurrence. It was not that the disaffected tenantry had aught of complaint, at least in the neighborhood of Mr. Harding's home. When the political agitator, that noisome beast that escaped the exorcism of S. Patrick and who is still responsible for most of the troubles of Ireland when he was abroad, stirring up strife among the peasantry, such affection was there between the latter and theft protestant landlords that when deeds of violence were ordered it was necessary to call in bloodthirsty agents from a distance to do the wickedness, and their design was often frustrated by the faithfulness of the cottagers themselves, who would give timely warning of the proposed attack. Nearly a century has gone by since that time and the Irish question has passed through many phases of existence. It has now reached a new crisis, perhaps a final one. The Empire has grown tired of the old story and, it seems, is willing to try, blindfold, any experiment for getting rid of the necessity of listening to it. Men of Mr. Harding's type are not the kind to keep their wrongs and sufferings before the world, and it remains to be seen whether Ireland will be the better for the expulsion of such as he and the exaltation to power of persons of that class for whose political advancement a collection was made a short time ago by one (and only one) religious denomination in the land. This fact I think has a very significant bearing upon the ultimate intention regarding some rule of those who are in the back ground at present, but who will come obtrusively to the front when the moment has become an accomplished fact, if true.

Mr. Harding studied for the law and took the regular course for entering that profession. The life, however, was distasteful to him, and feeling that this was not his vocation he came to Canada in 1825 and settled at Weston, near Toronto, in the then far west of our land. Like all the other settlers he literally hewed out a home for himself in the back woods. It is a great pity we have not more biographical sketches of these, the forefathers of our country. We, their children, might learn much from them that would help build up that stalwart manliness and indomitable perseverance and independence that Canadians need, but do not I trust altogether lack, at this stage of our national development. When Mr. Harding was in the vein for such narration, it was a pleasure to listen to the quaint and stirring details of that pioneer life which his unflinching memory conjured up. His early struggle with the unknown dangers and difficulties of a new land and all that train of accident and incident to be expected but impossible of guarding against, the pathetically ludicrous results of inexperience lost nothing of interest by his telling. But whilst building up a home for himself in the wilderness, he had not forgotten the claims upon him of that, other and dearer home, the household of faith. Like the exiled Jew, his soul went out towards the spiritual Jerusalem, and his ambition was to build an house for God, and welcome the ministrations of His priest. After much labor he succeeded with the assistance of his neighbors in bringing about this result and a church was built at Weston which was destroyed by fire, only about two years ago. The first rector was the Rev. Dr. Phillips, a relative of my own, who had little difficulty in persuading Mr. Harding that, having given so much to the church, he might best complete the gift by offering himself for her service as a ministering servant of her Lord. With him, to feel a certain course to be his duty, was to ensure its accomplishment, and at the age of 35 years he began those studies which should fit him for his life's work. The completeness of his early education rendered this a comparatively easy task, and after reading for a time with Dr. Phillips and completing his course at the theological seminary at Cobourg, under Archdeacon (afterwards Bishop) Bethune, he was admitted to Holy Orders by Bishop Strachan, the first Bishop of Toronto. His natural modesty and constant self-effacement stood in the way of his temporal advancement, and in the eyes of many, not well acquainted with him, obscured the ripe scholarship and wide reading with which he had stored his intellect. He had been urged again and by sacrifice of some which you now hear—

God knows what it may not be. Only take heed how ye hear when God calls to you. Again, Mr. Harding was a grand example to us of a man come to patriarchal years, nearly 20 years beyond the "days of our age," and yet he was an old man that did not fossilize. He was to the last young in spirit and fresh in thought. You never heard from his lips querulous complaint when any advance was proposed. You never heard him say "the old ways were good enough when I was a young man, and they ought to be good enough still." He loved the old paths, he was a conservative churchman, but he did not think that the church "just reached perfection" when he was in his prime, and every advance since then was an advance in the wrong direction. He recognized that every age has its peculiar needs, and whilst the church has a certain definite deposit of faith, the Catholic faith, which is unchanging and unchangeable so long as faith shall last, yet he knew there is room for things new as well as old in the affairs of the church, at least in those affairs which do not touch the Catholic faith to alter it. An old fossil must be respected for its age. A young fossil is intolerable. Mr. Harding neither the one nor the other. May God give us grace of spiritual growth that we may ever assimilate whatever there may be of spiritual life and energy in the ever developing body of his church.

I wish it had fallen to other hands than mine, to some one who had better knowledge than I of that lovable childlike, Christlike life that has gone to be with Christ. I wish some one could have been here to tell you and me of the many other traits and excellencies of character that shone within our departed brother. His light is now merged in the great effulgence that the gates of sin and of death alone hide from our dull eyes. In this light of life he is at rest and we can but echo the words of the aged Synesius, which were among the last he uttered: "Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word, for mine eyes have seen Thy salvation."

May he, with all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace, and may his perpetual shine upon them. Amen.

The funeral took place on Monday at the church of S. Alban the Martyr, Adolphustown. Before leaving Napanee a memorial service was held in St. Mary Magdalene's church in order that the congregation and citizens generally might have an opportunity of shewing a last mark of respect to the deceased. It being Monday morning the few of the clergy were able to be present. These acted as pall-bearers, the casket being born by old friends of the deceased. The body was received at the west door by the Rector and officiating clergymen, and the procession moved up the centre aisle, the clergy meanwhile reciting the comfortable words of the xxxiii Psalm, "The Lord is my Shepherd, therefore can I lack nothing." "Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil," &c. Then followed the celebration of the Holy Communion, Rural Dean Baker and Rev. F. D. Woodcock acting as gospeller and epistoler respectively. During the service the body rested in the choir, the clergy watching on either side. After the blessing the procession reformed and moved toward the door whilst the "Nunc Dimittis" was chanted.

At Adolphustown the Rev. R. S. Forneri, Rector, and several other clergymen who had assembled there, were in readiness to receive the funeral procession which was augmented by a large number of Mr. Harding's old parishioners. The full burial service was said in the church and was very impressive. At Mr. Harding's own request, no word of eulogy or funeral address was permitted to mar the grand simplicity of the Anglican rite, the only departure from the regular form being the insertion of the prayer for the "church militant" in commemoration of the faithful departed. At the grave the prayer of committal was said by the Rector, the concluding portion of the service being taken by the Rev. A. Jarvis, of Napanee.

Peter C. Dempsey died at his residence, Albany, Prince Edward county, after an illness extending over some months. The deceased was about sixty-five years of age, and had resided all his life in Prince Edward. He was well and favorably known throughout the county, having at one time been an extensive fruit grower and bee-keeper, and at one time president of the fruit growers association, and also president of the bee-keeper's association. He was selected by the former association at one time as representative to England in its interests. Deceased was pronounced to be one of the best judges of fruit in the Dominion, and had on different occasions been selected as a judge at the provincial and other large exhibitions. He was a son of the late William Dempsey, and a brother of W. R. Dempsey, ex-warden of Prince Edward county. A Good Suggestion.—By constipation is meant irregular action of the bowels, often called colic, and commonly caused by dyspepsia, neglect, excess in eating or drinking, etc. It is a serious complaint and not to be neglected under any circumstances, as it leads to indigestion, headache, dizziness, fever, etc. A truly successful remedy is Minard's Blood Purifier, which, if faithfully tried, never fails to effect a prompt and lasting cure even in the worst cases. The following extract from a letter from Mr. Jas. M. Carson, Band, N. W. T., will speak for itself: "I have been troubled with constipation and general debility and was induced to use your B. B. The Great Fight.

Every one, or nearly every male inhabitant of town, of any age to speak of, has been discussing the pros and cons of the fight between Sullivan and Corbett, which took place in New Orleans on Wednesday night last, in the presence of an immense concourse of people, who paid fancy prices to witness the combat. Contrary to general expectation, Corbett defeated Sullivan in 21 rounds, and all except those who lost money on Sullivan, rejoice. Training and condition won the fight. The man who indulges freely in the "good things" of this life, will not train often or well.

What no Fellow can Find Out.

Four men may eat green fruit with impunity, but a fifth may try the experiment and an hour or so later be tied up in knots with cramps and dysentery. Who the fifth man will be is one of those things no fellow can find out, and consequently all should take time by the forelock, and prepare for such an attack by keeping on hand a bottle of PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER, which is a safe, quick and infallible cure for diarrhoea, cholera, cramps, or, indeed, any disorder of the stomach. This excellent medicine can be bought at any reputable drug store. 25c will purchase the Big bottle, New Size.

MISTAKES

and misunderstandings will arise. Our artist has made a mistake this week, as you will notice by the above cut. It looks as though his political ideas were running in the direction of Annexation.

Our order was for a Union Jack, of the genuine One Thousand Year "Old Flag" variety, and you see what he has given us. But there can be no mistake about the idea we want to convey regarding the many fast qualities of Navy Blue Serge and Nigger-Head Suitings for Fall and Winter. They are as fast in Color, as fast in popular favour, and as fast in selling as the flag nailed to the mast of the Admiral's ship at Trafalgar.

Mr. Ross, our popular cutter, will be pleased to make you fast as a customer if you will give him a chance at your Fall Suit or Overcoat.
